Equipped with well-rounded skills set in music including performing, teaching, accompanying, arranging, and music technology, she has developed an eclectic range of capabilities. Through her project experiences, she acquired collaborative skills and experiences in concert planning.

During her internship, she was in charge of piano teaching and contributed to social media marketing and events planning. She produced course materials for in-house curriculum for the music school.

Celine have been involved in the improvisation section at the recent LASALLE Piano Voyage: The Night of the Opera 2021. She performed and collaborated with dancers at the LASALLE Piano Voyage: Musical Reflection and Chopin Music and Dance Collaboration featuring Polish choreographer, Maria Stoklosa in 2020. She has also performed a duet at the Valentine's Day Concert @ Esplanade Library in the same year.

In 2018, Celine achieved Distinction in the Grade 8 ABRSM piano exam and performed at venues such as Changi Airport Singapore Airlines Theatre, Mount Elizabeth Hospital and Alexandra Hospital and Festive Arts theatre in 2017.

In May 2017, she represented Yishun Junior College Band as a flutist in the college in the Singapore Youth Festival (SYF) Central Judging of Concert Bands. In her Secondary school, she was also a flutist and appointed section leader and assistant librarian in Guangyang Symphonic band. She has also been awarded the best recruit award in the year 2013 when she first joined the band. Besides performing, she has also received a masterclass by international music educator Richard Ormrod from the Royal Northern College of Music.

Celine is highly passionate about classical music and has been learning the piano since the age of 8 years old, she is interested in teaching and furthering her studies to attain a master's degree in performance in the future.

Her favourite composer is Chopin and her favourite works are his mazurkas. She is attracted to the mazurkas display of endless wealth of melodic invention and of harmonic, rhythmic and, above all, expressive nuances and is interested in bringing that through the conveyance of her interpretation of the mazurkas
